

Pastor's Corner

Professional dramatist, Chuck Neighbors, will be performing two one-man dramas on Sabbath, October 17, at the Auburn Church. Best know for his dramatic adaptation of Charles Shelton's classic, "In His Steps," a well known story of a group of Christians who revolutionized their community when they dedicated themselves to live by one simple code: "What would Jesus do?" Beginning at 11:00 AM, Chuck will perform this classic for the Auburn church during the Sabbath worship service.

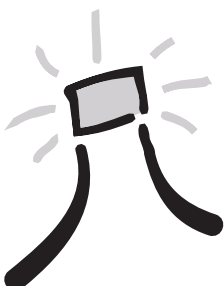

At 3:00 PM on the same day, Chuck will perform a favorite with audiences,

"Not The Way I Heard It." Based on some of our favorite Bible parables, Chuck will bring new light to the stories we often gloss over from having heard them so many times.

You get new perspectives on such stories as the Parable of the Talents, the Parable of the Sower and the Seeds, and the Prodigal Son, to name a few.

In the same way that the original parables encouraged the faith of listeners over 2000 years ago, this retelling will encourage your faith as well. Plan now to attend and be sure to bring a friend.

Church Family Potluck October 17th

Following our church service October 17th (Church Neighbors - see article this page), weather permitting there will be a church potluck on the patio. The church will provide the vegetarian hot dogs, buns, and condiments, members are asked to bring salads, chips, and desserts to round out the fare. So bring your lawn chair and come on out for Pastor Dan's world famous Bar-B-Q hot dogs and to enjoy an afternoon of fellowship with our church family. The potluck will be indoors if the weather is crummy (only Pastor Dan will have to brave the elements to be sure the dogs are done to perfection!).

Guiding Light

By: J.G. Blassey

Auburn Seventh-day Adventist Church

I walked by myself down a dark lonely road
I was tired and hungry, a strong wind blew cold
I was empty inside and chilled to the bone a final phase to the life I had known I lay down to rest by a damp river jetty and cried out "Oh Lord if you'll have me, I'm ready" I tossed and I turned, I didn't sleep well I thought I had died and woke up in hell and in my dreams a stranger I did see he stood upon the bank calling out to me I said, "are you the devil?" he laughed, said "no, I'm not you met the devil long ago and threw in with his lot"
"no I'm the other guy," he said, the guy that you forgot, I knew you'd call my name one day when things got really hot" well we shook hands and struck a deal right then I would do his bidding and he would be my friend so when I'm feeling bought and sold lost in the night when the stars won't shine I'll be brought in from the cold by a guiding light and hand divine

Focus On What You Have

The story is told of a farmer who lived on the same farm all his life. It was a good farm with fertile soil, but with the passing of years, the farmer began to think, "Maybe there's something better for me." So he set out to find an even better plot of land to farm.

Every day he found a new reason for criticizing some feature of his old farm. Finally, he decided to sell. He listed the farm with a real estate broker who promptly prepared an advertisement emphasizing all the many advantages of the acreage: ideal location, modern equipment, healthy stock, acres of fertile ground, high yields on crops, well-kept barns and pens, nice two story house on a hill above a pasture.

When the real estate broker called to read the ad to the farmer for his approval prior to placing it in the local paper, the farmer heard him out. When he finished, he cried, "Hold everything! I've changed my mind. I'm not going to sell. Why. I've been looking for a place just like that all my life!" When you start identifying the good traits of any person, situation, or organization, you are likely to find that they far outweigh the bad. Focus on what you have. What you have not will likely seem insignificant.
