CHURCH OPENS AGAIN

On February 13, 2021, with the recent changes from the state and conference we will resume in-person worship again for the first time since the middle of November. However, if you feel more comfortable staying at home, you are always welcome to still join us via the Facebook live stream at www.facebook.com/watch/auburnsdachurch every Sabbath at 11:15am.

Sabbath School's are still on pause for the moment until cases drop lower. We will keep you posted on any other developments. We're just glad to be worshipping in-person again!

In-Person Worship Guidelines:

Please note if attending the in-person service, there is no need to RSVP. We are limited to 100 people max. Masks are required during the worship service and anytime indoors, so please bring one if you have one. If not, a mask will be provided to you upon entry. There will also be a short health screening upon entry including a temperature check so please arrive around 15 minutes early. Drinking fountains will be closed to reduce high touch surfaces, so please bring a water bottle. Small water bottles will also be given out on Sabbath if you need one.

If you feel sick or in the high risk category please feel free to continue to join us in worship online at 11:15am on our church Facebook page

INSPIRATION CORNER

Surrender to Him

In times of good and times of bad,
When you're happy; when you're sad,
In times of thick; in times of thin,
All should know you can turn to Him.

When someone you think has your back,
Turns and instead stabs you in the back,
When they hide their evil behind a grin,
All should know you can trust in Him.

When all your friends seem to desert you,
Even those you thought tired and true,
And your trust is wearing really thin,
All should know you can rely on Him.

When you have just received another blessing,
And you know He stood for you, no guessing,
And you know He has blessed you again,
All should know you can stand for Him.

When you realize Jesus died just for you,
The most painful death He could go through,
Just so we could shed all our sin,
All should try to live just for Him.

Many pride themselves on self sufficiency,
How they can live their lives efficiently,
It's not time to rely on yourself again,
We should all surrender to Him.

Jan's Healthy Recipes

Apple Fritters

From Better Homes & Gardens, Healthy Recipes, 2009

Ingredients:

- 2 median tart cooking apples (such as Jonathan or Granny Smith)
- 2/3 Cup all purpose flour
- 1 Tablespoon powdered sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon finely shredded lemon peel
- 1 egg
- 1/4 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 Cup milk
- 1 teaspoon cooking oil, shortening, or cooking oil for deep-fat frying
- Powdered sugar optional

Instructions:

Core apples and cut crosswise into 6 rings. In a medium bowl combine flour, powdered sugar, lemon peel, and baking powder.

In a bowl use a wire whisk to combine egg, milk, and 1 teaspoon cooking oil. Add egg mixture all at once to flour mixture, beat until smooth.

Using a fork dip apple rings into batter; drain off excess batter. Fry 2 to 3 rings at a time in deep hot fat (365 degrees) for 2 minutes or until golden brown, turning once. Drain, cool on rack. Sprinkle with remaining powdered sugar if desired.

In Memory of Lili Husse

Asking God to help any and all of us who believe in Him to show us His will on all present and future plans. We'll need to keep past memories of her, because there won't be any more. My beautiful first-born, joyous, artistic, musical, out-door-loving/gardening, daughter passed away last weekend (2-16-2021). Post your thoughts on my Facebook page. SHARE YOUR SPECIAL MEMORIES OF LILI, WHICH IS WHAT MY FAMILY AND I ARE TRYING OUR BEST TO DO.
