Thank You for Supporting Our School.

Pine Hills wants to thank you for the support of the school and especially our exceptional faculty and students. As the school takes a much needed summer break, continue to remember the school in your thoughts and prayers. Some of those who would love to attend next year find finances challenging. They would greatly appreciate any financial assistance that you may be able to provide. If your family is interested in volunteering or in Christian education, please contact the PHAA school office at 530.885.9447 for more info.
